IS GODDESS OF LOVE ON CAMPUS OR DID SHE ELOPE? ALL IS MYSTERY REGARDING STRANGE DISAPPEARANCE

Some Say She Eloped With Bust Of Mark Twain. Others That She "Fell" for Charms of Student.

A mystery which imminently concerns the student body is turning the college into a bee-hive of criminologists. The mystery lies in the abduction of a shapely and beautiful young lady whose home was for a day the front lawn of Mr. Fred Hagedorn, No. 58 Vernon Street. She has been called by some the Goddess of Love, by others the Spirit of Spring. But that is beside the question. The fact remains that on the morning of Tuesday, April 23, Mr. Hagedorn placed the gorgeous bronze effigy of Aphrodite, or whoever she was, polished and gleaming in the spring sunshine on a pedestal in his front yard.

That evening Mr. Hagedorn entertained out-of-town guests. After dinner he invited his friends to step out on the porch and view an example of his aesthetic nature. With pride he delineated the pulchritude of the Goddess of Love. He led his guests out onto the lawn. Imagine his consternation when he realized that the goddess had fled with the coming of the shadows of evening. The pedestal was still there, but the statuesque beauty was nowhere visible.

Mr. Hagedorn enlisted the aid of "The Hartford Courant" in his quest of the abducted damsel. He said that the statue was valued at $300 and offered a reward of $10 for its recovery. The local newspaper published a series of stories concerning the mystery. But the days passed without a hint as to the hiding place of the Goddess of Love.

Hartford sleuths ventured the solution that she may have eloped, prompted by the vernal urge of her bronze heart, with the bust of Mark Twain modelled by Nunzio Vayana, which so mysteriously vanished from the lawn of the author's old home two years ago.

Up to the present no word has been heard from the goddess. She forsook Vernon Street without leaving a vestige of her former presence. Her abductors left not even the minutest clue. The local newspapers have sent Boy Scouts through the darkest nooks of Frog Hollow. Mr. Hagedorn has offered to increase the reward, but not a sign of the goddess! Mystery, mystery, all is shrouded in the most profound mystery.

SPECIAL SERVICE SUNDAY, MAY 13, FOR CHARTER DAY

Dr. S. S. Drury, Headmaster of St. Paul's School, to Give Address. Special Music.

On Sunday morning, May 13, a special service will be held in the chapel to commemorate Charter Day, May 14. Dr. S. S. Drury, Headmaster of St. Paul's School, Concord, New Hampshire, will preach, and special music is being prepared for the occasion. It is possible that the new glee club will give the first public rendition of the new Trinity College Hymn, written especially for the Centennial celebration by Professor Odell Shepard.

COLLEGE ELECTS OFFICERS FOR NEXT YEAR

Heavy Vote Marks Quiet Election. All Results Close.

TERRELL, PRESIDENT

Noble, Kennedy, Eastman and Malcolm-Smith Win Out For Offices.

As a result of the final elections for college officers for the year 1923-1924, William S. Terrell will preside over the Senate, Richard B. Noble will be secretary of the Athletic Association, Stanley L. Kennedy will be College Marshal, George Malcolm-Smith will be junior member of the Discipline committee, and Roger R. Eastman will act as chairman of the Union Committee.

All elections were close and an exceptionally large vote was recorded. Terrell won out over C. E. Cunningham for president of the Senate. He was a member of the 'varsity football squad, of the track team, and was chairman of the junior promenade of the Class of 1924. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

Richard B. Noble defeated M. B. Johnson for secretary of the Athletic Association. Noble was a member of the 'varsity football team last season, and was chosen as All-Connecticut Valley guard. He was a star weight man on last year's track team, and was on the basketball squad. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

Stanley L. Kennedy, elected over John D. Woolam to conduct all college processions, is captain-elect of the football team, was on this season's basketball squad, and is a member of Psi Upsilon.

George Malcolm-Smith, who will sit on the Discipline committee with Terrell, as undergraduate members, is campus representative of "The Hartford Courant", has drawn many posters and sketches for various publications, and is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

Roger R. Eastman, who will succeed A. M. Niese as chairman of the Union committee has served on the Senate during the present year and has been chairman of many of its special committees. He is a member of Sigma Nu.

RECORDS FALL AS UNION WINS

Track Team Defeated at Schenectady 96 to 30.

ORAM LOWERS TWO UNION RECORDS. BIRCH SHINES

Johnson, in His Last Race, Wins Quarter. Forced to Give Up Track.

Before the baseball game between Trinity and Union at Schenectady, Saturday, May 5, the track team met the Garnet in a dual meet. This was the second of three athletic meetings between the two colleges in four days. The preceding Wednesday the tennis teams fought to a draw. The track meet was all Union, the final score being 96 to 30.

Union placed three men in five events: the 100-yard dash, shot put, pole vault, high jump, and two-mile run. In the 120-yard high hurdles, 220-yard low hurdles, and broad jump, first and second went to the home team. In the 220-yard dash and javelin throw they captured first and third.

Trinity scored most heavily in the 440-yard dash. Johnson, running his last race, won out in a finish that was conducive to heart failure on the part of the spectators, and McBurney finished third. The mile run, discus throw, and half-mile run, accounted for the other first places scored by wearers of the Blue and Gold.

Johnson's Farewell.

The meet was Johnson's last appearance on the cinder path. He has developed a weak heart that forces him to drop track athletics, although he will still be available for football. Since it was his last race his wonderful running in the quarter mile event places him in Trinity's hall of memory. He had previously entered the century dash and two-twenty, finishing second in the latter. Four men toed the mark in the quarter. With the crack of the gun Johnson sprang into the lead and held it, although Fortenbaugh dogged his heels. As the pair swung into the home stretch Johnson had a three-yard lead and put forth his last ounce of energy. Even so, Fortenbaugh closed the gap until the two were practically neck and neck. Down the track they came, but Johnson's pace was too much and his rival gradually dropped a foot in the rear. In this form-

BASEBALL TEAM WINS AND LOSES ON YORK STATE TRIP

Friday Game at St. Stephen's Is a Field Day. Loose Game Dropped to Union at Schenectady.

SCORES ARE TRINITY 16, ST. STEPHEN'S 5;
UNION 9, TRINITY 7. TEAM HITS BALL HARD.

After Being Presented With Union Game In First Inning, Blue and Gold Returns the Compliment.

In the first game of its annual New York State trip the baseball team staged a track meet at Red Hook, where the St. Stephen's nine furnished what opposition there was. The final count was 16 to 5, and youthful spirit can be held responsible for some of those five runs scored.

The only real story of the game is to tell how Trinity runs were manufactured. Harry McKniff, pitching his first full college game, had the Annandale inhabitants completely cowed. Five hits were gathered off his delivery, only two coming in one inning. His own wildness aided materially in placing men on base. Five St. Stephenites were issued free transportation, and one run was the result of a wild pitch. The outfielders had an easy afternoon, only five flies being credited to them.

Everybody on the Trinity team which started the fray took part in the attack which netted a total of sixteen runs and fourteen hits, with three two-baggers thrown in for good measure. The only two men who did not garner hits were Newman and McKniff. Dick was in hard luck all afternoon. Two of his long drives to center field were gathered in. To help things along he scored two runs.

Newsholme Shines.

The big gun of the artillery was Newsholme. The unassuming little third baseman collected two singles, two doubles, a sacrifice, and a walk in six journeys to the plate, and scored three runs. Just for good measure he drove in five runs, making a grand total of eight by his efforts.

In the opening inning Trinity counted four times. Cronin started the fireworks with a single to left. Pryor was safe when Noble dropped a throw from Bonton. Cronin took second. Norman struck out. Newman walked. Ortgies lifted a long fly to left, which sent Cronin over with the first run. Newsholme got his first hit, a single, scoring Pryor and Newman, who had moved up on Ortgies' drive. Newsholme stole. Jones singled over third scoring Newsholme. Shields, the eighth man at bat, struck out.

In the second inning eight men again batted. McKniff got one of Stickler's shoots in the ribs and trotted to first. Stickler tried to catch him napping and threw into right field, sending his rival box artist to second. Cronin tried his best to sacrifice, but everybody was safe and happy when a play at third failed to get McKniff. Pryor singled to left, scoring McKniff, and sending Cronin to second. The double steal worked to perfection. Norman fell a victim of a bobble to Stickler, and Newman flied out to center field. Ortgies walked, filling the bases. Newsholme also received a free ticket. Cronin trotted across the pan with the sixth run. Jones was kind enough to strike out, ending the inning.

Only One Run in Third.

The third was productive of only one counter. Shields was walked and sacrificed along by McKniff. Cron-

After enjoying a field day at St. Stephen's on Friday, May 4, and after being offered the game at Union the next day on a silver platter in the first inning, the baseball team, not to be outdone in courtesy, dropped the contest to the Schenectady nine by a score of 9 to 7. The game was loosely played by both teams, an inferior grade of umpiring contributing largely to the great number of unearned runs scored by both contestants, and the final breaks going to the winning team, when some startling fielding by Captain Dean cut short a Trinity rally in the eighth inning.

Newman Good.

Newman, Blue and Gold pitching ace, hurled a courageous game, but was not supported in good style by Pryor, his battery mate. The Trinity team hit the ball hard all through the contest and fielded in superior fashion, but could not overcome the breaks of the game, after a fielding bobble by Jones in the first inning permitted Union to tie the score.

The pitching was a battle of left-handers with Newman having all the best of the argument. He was steadier than Stubbs, his opponent, and struck out nine men to his rival's six. "Dick" franked five men to first base, Stubbs six. All of Trinity's eleven hits were solid smashes to the outfield, although none went for extra bases. Union amassed ten base blows, one being a very lucky bunt. Three went for extra bases, however, with Dean's longest drive a home run when it was returned poorly to the infield.

Dean and Heidorf Star.

The outstanding fielding stars of the game were both members of the opposition. Captain Dean, at first base, pulled the game out of the fire in the eighth inning when he made two almost impossible plays, cutting off a determined rally by the losers. Heidorf, at shortstop, had a big day, having six assists and two outs to his credit. One particularly pretty play was an out he scored at first when he backed up the pitcher on a hot drive through the box.

For Trinity Ortgies pulled the best bit of fielding of the day when he captured a long drive from Heidorf's bat in the first inning. The center fielder slipped as he started back for the ball, and made the catch with his back to the diamond. Cronin contributed a pretty stop and throw of a hard drive over second base in the fifth inning.

When the game opened Union immediately presented its guests with three runs. Right then the game looked like another walkaway. Cronin, the first man to face Stubbs, went out via the third to first route. Pryor received Stubbs' first free ticket. Norman followed with a hard single through shortstop. The presence of two aliens on bases seemed to unsettle the stout Union twirler, and he walked Newman, filling the bases. Ortgies looked particularly dangerous and was also passed forcing in Pryor with the first run of the

FINALS ARE CLOSE.

These are hard days for the student. Everything is calling him out of doors. Even though the weather has been about a month behind the calendar, it seems that spring has come at last. The tennis courts are in shape (notice we did not say in good shape), Goodwin Park is calling the golfers, the country is waiting for the hikers, and the river is anxious to convey canoeists down to the Sound. For those less ambitious souls who like to idle away time in the shade of a tree, the campus has dressed itself becomingly. But finals are less than three weeks off.

Of all times in the year to study May is the hardest, and that may be one reason that study is more important than at any other time. It seems unnecessary for a man to fail in curriculum work in the June examinations, after he has successfully negotiated mid-years; but there are always some individuals who lose an entire year's credit by doing just that. Not only do they lose credit for the work of the Trinity term, but they must wait until mid-years of the next year to re-enter college.

Too often a student, particularly a freshman who has been taught to fear mid-years with a wholesome fear, gets the idea that the final examinations are more or less a matter of form. Nothing is farther from the truth. It is true that the January examination period frequently provides a harder test than the finals do, but history shows that several men each year fall down in the last test. Don't lose a year's work. Don't "flunk-out" in June.

GODDESS APPEARS IN CHURCH.

Part of the mystery surrounding the disappearance of the Goddess of Love, an account of which appears in another part of this issue, was dispelled Sunday, May 6. "The Hartford Courant", with a prophetic vision unusual in newspapers, had stated that she would soon appear, "accompanied by music and song." True enough, when chapel service began on Sunday morning, there sat the goddess, calmly surveying those students prone to go to chapel, from the vantage point of the speaker's desk on the left of the entrance. The goddess has succumbed, as has many another of her sex, to the charms of Trinity students. But all the mystery is not cleared away. After attending chapel the bronze beauty again mysteriously disappeared. The search has now narrowed down. But when and where the eternal lady will next favor mankind with a glimpse of her beauty is very uncertain. Most is still clouded in mystery!

game. Newsholme hit to Cornell, who caught Norman at the plate on a forced play. The attempt at a double failed and Newman sped home while Dean was handling the ball at first base. Jones also picked out Cornell to handle his drive, but the second baseman let it go through his legs, Ortgies scoring, and Newsholme taking third. Jones stole, but with two more runs waiting on the bases Shields ended the inning by rolling out to Heidorf.

Union Ties.

All looked rosy for Trinity, but native courtesy asserted itself. Heidorf was squelched by Ortgies. Nitchman singled to left. Cornell drove a grounder to his rival second baseman, but with an easy double play in sight, Jones repeated Cornell's error of the opening half. The ball rolled into right field, and Nitchman took third. Captain Dean connected with one of Newman's fast ones and drove it along the right field foul line to the fence, scoring his two partners. The hit should have gone for a triple with clean handling of the ball, but Dean got a tainted home run when the return to the plate was wide. Makofski struck out and Meyer fled out to Shields.

In the second inning Trinity did not threaten, but Union went right ahead with its offensive. After Bartley was out of the way Palmer singled to center and took second on a passed ball. Stubbs walked. Heidorf singled, scoring Palmer and advancing Stubbs to second. Nitchman drove to Cronin who got Heidorf at second, but the double could not be completed. Stubbs took third on the play. Cornell doubled over third base scoring the pitcher and sending Nitchman to third. Dean again rose to the occasion, this time crashing a double to right, sending both Nitchman and Cornell to the scoring station. Makofski drove one to center that Ortgies captured.

Trinity Scores Again.

Trinity came back with blood in its collective eye. Newman opened with a scorching single to right. Ortgies advanced the pitcher with an out at first. Newsholme singled to right, scoring Newman, and when Meyer booted the hit, Newsholme took second. A lapse of memory on the part of Bartley sent Newsholme to third, from which station he scored on Jones' grounder. Jones was safe when an unsuccessful attempt was made to catch Newsholme at the plate. The attack stopped momentarily while Shields fanned, but Jones scored when Heidorf threw badly on Reilly's grounder. Cronin hit to shortstop for the last out.

Thereafter the game was rather tame until the sixth when Union put together two runs. Bartley and Palmer successively singled between short and third. Stubbs attempted to sacrifice but was credited with a hit when no play was made on his bunt. Newman forced over one run by walking Heidorf. Nitchman struck out. Cornell lifted a sacrifice fly to Ortgies, scoring Palmer. Dean ended the inning with a fly to Shields. Once again Trinity came back with a rally, but, like the one in the second inning, it fell short by one run. Ortgies and Newsholme went out. Jones singled to center field and stole second. Shields dropped another single to center, scoring Jones. Reilly walked, but the inning ended when Cronin forced Reilly at second.

In the eighth the Blue and Gold fought hard against defeat and fortune, but the breaks were too much. Pryor opened with a hit to left field, and took second on Norman's single to center. Newman slashed viciously over the first base bag, but Dean, who had not left the base, was right in the path of the bullet and completed a double play at second, Pryor going to third. Ortgies caught one of Stubbs' offerings on the nose and started it on a long journey to right field, but Dean once more interfered with the local plans. This time he leaped sideways, stuck up his gloved hand and came down with the ball almost driven through the glove.

That break was too much, and the game was over.

First Inning.

Cronin grounded out, third baseman to first. Pryor walked. Norman singled through shortstop. Pryor took second. Newman walked. Bases full. Ortgies walked. Pryor was forced to score. Newsholme safe at first on fielder's choice. Norman was forced out at the plate, second baseman to catcher. Newman scored. Jones hit to second baseman who let ball go through to center field, scoring Ortgies. Newsholme took third. Jones stole second. Shields grounded out, Heidorf to Dean. Three runs, one hit, one error.

Heidorf fled out to Ortgies. Nitchman singled down the left field foul line. Cornell safe on first on Jones' error. Nitchman took second. Dean hit to deep right field. Nitchman and Cornell scored, Dean scored on Ortgies' wide throw to the plate. Makofski struck out. Myers fled out to Shields. Three runs, two hits, two errors.

Second Inning.

Reilly struck out. Cronin grounded out, third baseman to first. Pryor singled down left field foul line. Norman fled out to right field. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Nitchman was safe at first on fielder's choice. Heidorf was out at second. Cornell doubled down left field foul line, scoring Stubbs. Nitchman took third. Dean hit down right field foul line, scoring Nitchman and Cornell, and was safe at second on fielder's choice. Makofski fled out to Ortgies. Four runs, four hits, no errors.

Third Inning.

TRINITY ENTERS TWO MEN IN E. I.

Birch and O'Connor Listed to Represent Blue and Gold at Springfield Eastern Intercollegiates.

According to an announcement made by Coach Drew, of the track team, Trinity will enter two men in the Eastern Intercollegiates, to be held at Springfield, Saturday, May 12. This is the smallest group which has represented Trinity in these annual games for some years, and is caused by the fact that Johnson, star dash man, must give up track activities on account of a weak heart.

The men who are entered are Birch, '25, and O'Connor, '24. This year marks the first appearance of Birch on the cinder path, and he has performed in startling style. Originally "Spud" intended to enter him in the half mile event, but in the time trials before the first dual meet the new candidate entered the mile and ran such an impressive race that he was entered in both events. At Worcester he won the mile in brilliant fashion and finished a foot behind the winner in the half mile. The experience gained in these races stood him in good stead at Union, Saturday, May 5. Here he captured the mile in easy style, running in 4.41 time. Shortly after this event he ran the half mile, and again broke the tape, in 2.06. In both races his wonderful sprinting on the last lap brought forth cheers from an alien crowd.

O'Connor will probably enter only the discus throw. He has won this event in both the dual meets, without being seriously pushed. His best distance in meets is something over 105 feet, but he has done considerably better than this, and should show up well in the stern competition of all New England colleges.

assisted, and Norman was out at second on a double play. Pryor took third. Ortgies lined out to Dean. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Heidorf tripled to center field. Nitchman fled out to Reilly. Cornell fled out to Jones. Pryor dropped the third strike, but Dean was out at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Ninth Inning.

Newsholme singled over second base. Jones fouled out to Dean. Shields struck out. Reilly fouled out to catcher. No runs, one hit, no errors.

ST. STEPHEN'S GAME.

in flied out to Craig but Pryor singled through second, scoring Shields. Pryor took third when the play at the plate was wild. Norman walked and stole but both men were left stranded by Newman who went out on a roller to the box.

In the fourth session another was added. Ortgies opened with a single over second, and was sacrificed by Newsholme. Then Kilby, who had taken up the pitching burden, decided to save the Trinity athletes unnecessary exertion and walked Jones, Shields, and McKniff in succession. Ortgies was simply forced to score the eighth run.

In the fifth two more counters trickled over the plate. This time Pryor was walked as a starter. Norman singled over shortstop, and sent the catcher to second. Newman fanned, but Ortgies lifted another long drive to center, which advanced both men after the catch. Newsholme inserted his second single, a hit to right which scored both Pryor and Norman. That was all.

St. Stephens Scores.

By this time the team had decided it did not have to play real baseball any more, and St. Stephen's scored three runs while Trinity was in this frame of mind. For the first time Trinity failed to score, and St. Stephen's took up the procession. This was in the sixth inning. Noble bounced a grounder off the umpire, which went for a hit. Then he stole second. Cronin tossed badly to first on Simmons' offering, Noble taking third, from which station he scored after Newman had gathered in Bittner's fly. Simmons tried to sneak to third on the play at the plate but was cut off. Osborne walked and stole. Deloria dropped a single over Cronin's head, scoring Osborne. Deloria went clear to third on the throw home, and was wild pitched home by McKniff.

After this inning Coach Stone read the riot act to the team and there was no more careless baseball, although Trinity again went scoreless in the seventh.

The eighth saw two more runs manufactured. Newsholme doubled and came home on Shields' single to right after Jones had rolled out to Craig. Shields took second on the play at the plate and scored on a single over second by Cronin.

Four More In Ninth.

In the last frame Trinity scored four more, just for good measure, and St. Stephen's, being desperate, counted twice. Norman was hit by Kilby to open the inning. Bittner booted Newman's offering, and Norman took third. Newman immediately stole. Ortgies sent both men across with a hit through second base, and pulled up at that station. Newsholme lined out his second double, this time down the right field foul line, Ortgies scoring. Jones emulated his predecessor with a double to left. Newsholme scored. Then Shields, McKniffe, and Cronin went out in order.

For St. Stephen's Lyte walked after Deloria had fanned. Lyte discovered that Trinity was playing the batter and stole second and third unmolested. Kilby also walked and stole second. Craig struck out. Both Lyte and Kilby scored and Bonton was safe at first when Cronin made his second wide heave to Norman. Noble tried Cronin again but was an easy out.

Business Building

THE selling of commodities is fundamental in every business, and selling life insurance affords the maximum of satisfaction and remuneration. For the life insurance salesman is a business builder and finds innumerable ways to serve the community and make himself indispensable in the conduct of modern affairs.

The life insurance salesman is not only a business builder but he is in business for himself, creating a competence permanent and continuous. It is the best paid work for those who are ambitious and willing to work, and who have the character and stamina necessary to stamp their individuality upon the business and on their community.

The traditions and practices of the JOHN HANCOCK are such that the college graduate can take a peculiar pride in representing this company. You are liable to remain in the business you enter on leaving college. Before making a definite decision inquire into life insurance as a career. Write, "Agency Department."

ation they finished, the time being 52.2. Johnson carried past the tape a few yards and collapsed on the grass beside the track.

High point winner for Trinity was again Birch, the sensation of the season. He won the mile in 4.41.2. In this race he ran behind Johnson, of Union, until the last two hundred yards when his now famous spurt carried the field along at a killing pace, until all dropped behind. He crossed the line with fifteen yards to spare. Not many minutes after this race he was called out for the half mile. Barker was a worthy opponent and even Birch's supporters scarcely hoped for another first place. He ran this race in second position also until the 220 mark was reached. Then the spurt was again in evidence. Even faster than before, if that was possible, he carried Barker around the turn and into the stretch. Again the pace was too much for the opposition and he broke the tape with a five-yard lead. Time for this run was 2.06.6.

Trinity's other winner of a first place was O'Connor, who hurled the discus 105 feet 2 inches.

The bright light of the meet was Oram, Union senior, who established two new college records for his Alma Mater. He was fresh from his victory in the 440-yard low hurdles at the Pennsylvania Relay Games, in which he defeated the present intercollegiate champion, and he carried that spirit into the meet. All told, he accounted for twenty points. In the low hurdles he established a new Union College record of 25 seconds flat. In the hundred yard dash he Jepson tried the high jump but his injured ankle buckled under him on the first jump. This injury seriously crippled the Trinity team, as he could have placed in both the high and broad jumps, and the shot put. His only entry was the javelin throw, in which he finished second.
